VictorsFood launches 'Hot Chocolate' Group Cooking Events

August 2011: Australia's leading food experience company, VictorsFood, will be launching its new chocolate group cooking experience 'Hot Chocolate' at Sydney's Event Showcase (RSVP) in August.

VictorsFood Director Victor Pisapia says, "We love the way that cooking and eating together builds bonds between people. And people love chocolate. So, it seemed natural to bring them together in a hands-on cooking event for our corporate clients. Teams get to learn about chocolate, and work together to make and enjoy a number of chocolate delights, with enough to take home, or back to the office—if they get that far. When you talk about incentives, it's hard to go past chocolate."

Pisapia adds, "like all of our events, 'Hot Chocolate' suits any size group, anywhere, so we can do this event with teams across Australia."

'Hot Chocolate' launches 10-11 August during Sydney's Event Showcase at Sydney Convention and Exhibition Centre. Visit VictorsFood at stall M32 for a 'hot' chocolate gift.
